

Raw Material

Supplying the most suitable material to the customer's request is very important for our company. We choose our suppliers of the leading steel companies in Turkey, because we know the importance of the metallurgical examination of the materials to be used. In this way we can keep under control the quality of the our products.