

Laboratory

The production procedures at HAK-ER adhere to strict international restrictions.

Every step, from the production up to the export, is controlled by a special equipment. A continuous quality control in terms of chemical analysis, hardness measurement can make you trust us.

The high quality standard of our products has already earned the trust of a wide range of customers.